prodoluge

A Dark brown scarred tabby lurked in the branches of the tree watching a young grey tabby apprentice. " Hawkfrost " the brown tabby whispered to his partner a dark brown tabby with a lighter underbelly. " yes tigerstar? " Hawkfrost replied. " we can make him one of us. He's brambleclaw's son. " tigerstar stated. The two tabbys lurked behind the grey apprentice. " yes...one of us. "

Chapter 1

Jaypaw woke up in the medicine den in his nest. His sky blue blind eyes opened. ' back here again ' he thought.
He had wanted to become a warrior but because of his stupid blindness he had to become a medicine cat. As spottedleaf said it was his destiny. Leafpool didn't seem to care at all about his feelings. Only caring that he was her apprentice. "Jaypaw can you go get some yarrow? Were out. We can't risk kits dying. " leafpool said her amber gaze burning into his pelt.
" ok leafpool. " he walked out grumply. He made to the thorn barrier where dustpelt was guarding. " hey jaypaw you need help? After all you are- " dustpelt didn't finish before jaypaw snapped. " That's it! I didn't even want this position! If y'all keep on hinting that I'm blind then why have a blind cat in the clan huh?! " He hissed. Leafpool came running to jaypaw. " listen you need to-" jaypaw turned around on her and hissed at her before raking his claws on her nose. He ran into the forest as fast as he could, not caring if brambles tripped him. When he thought no one was running after him he finally stopped and tried to climb up a tree. He made it to the first branch. He sat down and sobbed.

Hollypaw P.O.V

Hollypaw ran after her brother after everyone went into their den. She followed his herb like scent very far until she heard someone sobbing. ' could it be jaypaw? ' she thought. she followed the sound until she heard it coming from a tree. She saw a grey body shaking violently. " Jaypaw? " she called out. The sobbing stopped.
" who's there? " his shaking voice called. " it's me. Hollypaw. " she said softly. " go away. " he said as he turned away from her. She climbed up to the branch he was sitting on and put her tail on his shoulder. He was quieter a second then started sobbing into her black fur. " don't worry Jaypaw, you're not alone. "

Hollypaw and Jaypaw returned to the clan. They were excited to see them.
Hollypaw went back to her duties while Jaypaw stood outside the medicine den. ' would leafpool welcome him back? ' he pushed into the medicine den and saw Leafpool in the medicine storage. " oh. Hello Jaypaw. " leafpool said without looking at him. " leafpool I'm sorry I was just going through something. " Jaypaw said as he put his head down.
Leafpool turned to him and he saw what he had done. Leafpool had a scar across her muzzle to her chin. " leafpool..." "No! You listen jaypaw! You are not welcome here at all you shall never return to being my apprentice!" Leafpool hissed as she chased Jaypaw out. " You don't even belong in thunderclan! " she hissed.
Lionpaw stepped in front of Jaypaw. " No one speaks to my brother like that! " he hissed. Firestar stepped onto high rock. " Leafpool! " he roared as everyone fell into a state of shock and silence. " meet me in my den. " he snarled as he went into his den

The whole clan was in a state of shock of leafpool's behavior. Jaypaw couldn't bare look at anyone anymore. Leafpool had been fired from being a medicine cat so that left Jaypaw now named jayfeather. Firestar had to give him the name since leafpool wouldn't. Jayfeather made his way into the moonpool as the cats layed to rest. Ge touched his pink nose to the cold water and was brought into a dark forest. Two shapes appeared as they glowed an eerie red. " hello jaypaw... we've been waiting. " called a deep voice which belonged to a dark brown tabby. " Tigerstar? Why have you come to me? " Jayfeather asked
" Oh Jaypaw... don't you want to be a warrior? A great hero? And get revenge on those he have served you wrong? " came a voice belonging to a brown tabby with a white chest and underbelly.
" I mean I want to but- " Jayfeather got cut of before feeling a heavy weight on him and his cheek drawing blood.
" You would be a fool not to join us jaypaw! Join us and become a warrior take revenge on your enemies! You don't even want to be a stupid medicine cat! " Tigerstar bellowed.
" Join us jaypaw! " Tigerstar roared Jayfeather went silent in fear and finally said.
" ok..." he paused
" I'll join you. "

 oooh ! Who do you think will cause thunderclan's downfall? Hint: this cat has had a speaking part in all the chapters and is a living cat.

Chapter 4

Jayfeather walked back from the moonpool when breezepelt stepped in front of him. " what are you doing on windclan territory half breed? " breezepelt sneered. " oh I decided to take a nice walk- well what do you think I'm doing? Walking to thunderclan territory! I was at the moo pool! " Jayfeather hissed. " well since your alone and weak I guess I'll punish you. " breezepelt jumped onto jayfeather put jayfeather dodged. While breezepelt was down, jayfeather jumped on his back and pinned him by the neck. Breezepelt rolled and jayfeather jumped off. Jayfeather left deep scratches on breezepelt's side as breezepelt ran away. " you have learned well Jaypaw. " tigerstar whispered in his ear. Jayfeather walked back to thunderclan feeling triumphant.

Hollyleaf POV

Hollyleaf had gotten her warrior name and was sleeping in the warriors den next to cinderheart and lionblaze. She had thought about killing leafpool as she had did ashfur for treating Jayfeather like he didn't matter. She deserved it anyway. Hollyleaf snuck out and went into the medicine den her brother wasn't back yet so she grabbed two deathberries. She stuffed deathberries into the mouse and left it at leafpool's nest. She washed her scent off everything and got catmint and scattered them across the floor of the medicine den. She went back to her nest and slept the rest of the night

Chapter 5

Leafpool woke up the next morning. She smelled prey and looked at a mouse laying for her. She thought nothing of the ordinary and ate it. It had a weird taste to it but she didn't care. She went on a patrol with hollyleaf, brackenfur, sandstorm, and lionblaze. She started to have a red foam around her mouth and felt like she couldn't breathe. They rushed her to the medicine den but it was too late. Leafpool was dead. The clan kinda mourned for her and buried her far away from camp. Leafpool was not happy.

my first leafpool POV

* sorry for not writing. I'm always busy and can oy write at night*

Jayfeather settled in his nest. After trying to cure leafpool she died. He tried to smell around his den to see if anyone poisoned her, but was unsuccessful until he found it. He found a black tuft of hair in his nest. 'Was it hollyleaf? No. What am I thinking? Its against the warrior code. ' he thought as he buried the piece of hair in his nest. He curled up and fell into a deep sleep. He woke up in the same familiar place. He heard a deep voice behind him. " why hello Jaypaw. Come for some more training? " tigerstar said his amber gaze burning into his light grey fur. " isn't that why I come here every night? " Jayfeather said smoothly. He suddenly felt a weight on his back as he rolled over and pinned hawkfrost down. Hawkfrost lashed at his belly as Jayfeather rolled off. Hawkfrost bit at Jayfeather's leg as he kicked hawkfrost with his other. " I see blind boy is getting good at fighting. " hawkfrost teased. Jayfeather bowled him over and pinned him by his throat. " who's the blind one now? " Jayfeather growled as he sank his claws in. " good job Jaypaw. Seems like someone will be leader soon. " Tigerstar smirked. " it's time to wake up. " his voice faded as Jayfeather woke up. He quickly rubbed marigold onto his wounds.

Hollyleaf's P.O.V
Hollyleaf welcomed the fresh morning air onto her face. It felt refreshing. She groomed herself as brambleclaw called out the patrols. " Hollyleaf! You lead the hunting patrol. Take cloudtail, lionblaze, mousewhisker, and cinderheart with you. " she nodded as she gathered said cats and walked out of the camp. They hunted near the windclan border. For once windclan wasn't being like they usually were. Pointing accusations at thunderclan. That's when she heard a thunder of paws. She saw most of windclan charging. She called the patrol and burst into camp. " Windclan are coming! " She yowled

Chapter 6

Jayfeather sorted through the deathberries in his medicine store when he felt something fuzzy. He hooked onto it with one of his claws. It smelled like hollyleaf's fur. " leafpool died by deathberry poisoning. Could hollyleaf have done it? " he said to himself. " no she would never do that. She loves the warrior code. " he said putting the tuft of fur into his nest. He went back to sorting the deathberries. Little did he know a green pair of eyes were staring at him. ' I'll make sure he doesn't know ' the cat thought.
__time skip__ Jayfeather padded through the trees. It was dark and a bit eerie. He was looking for some nightly herbs. He looked back every couple of step. There was someone behind him. Jayfeather quickened his pace as he turned to go back home. Soon he was on the ground with someone pinning him. Jayfeather quickly kicked them in the stomach as he pinned them down. " who are you? " he snarled as he pinned them by the throat. " I-its me-e. H-holl-hollyleaf "
